FEES & COST?

- We require a $2,000 food & beverage minimum for the truck to leave our property
- 8% Rhode Island sales tax
- 15% administrative fee
- $2 per mile fee (roundtrip)
- $25 per attendant per hour (minimum of three)

PRICING STRUCTURE?

There are three different pricing options depending on what you're looking for.

1. Choose a package for your guests. This is a set price for each guest for unlimited food. You will know ahead of time the cost of your event and what the 50% deposit will be. You will be required to give a final count and final payment 10 days prior to the event.
2. Choose a menu and run a tab for your guests. With this option you will choose a menu for your guests and each time they come up to the truck we will add it on a "running tab". With this option we will only plan for one of each menu item per guest. This plan requires your tab to reach a minimum of $2,000, therefore your deposit will be $1,000. At the conclusion of your event we will give you the balance of the tab minus your deposit.
3. You want the truck at your property or establishment but you want guests to pay their own way. With this option you will still create a menu for your guests to choose from and pay for at the window. This plan requires your guests to reach a minimum of $2,000 in food and beverage. We will keep a credit card on file, if you don't meet the minimum by the conclusion of the event, it will be charged the difference.

FOOD TRUCK DETAILS & INFORMATION

When hosting an event at your location, you will be responsible for making sure there are no additional licenses or permits we will need to get. The truck has its own generator it runs on and bright spotlights, therefore neighbors and other surrounding businesses will need to be made aware of this beforehand. The truck is set up like a kitchen with multiple fryolators - therefore it cannot be parked on a hill or any type of rocky surface it needs to be on flat land.

The hours include one hour of set up and one hour of break down.
